

Please do NOT overturn the NJ Do Not Call law. Any business that has had contact with a customer within 18 months will have their address and can send a form to their customer to receiver permission to call.